Clinton Kohls

It was quite a summer for Bishop Brossart senior golfer Clinton Kohls, who made history by sweeping all three major Northern Kentucky amateur tournaments -- the Northern Kentucky Junior Amateur, the Kirk Maddox Memorial and the 7-Up Junior Tour. Last year as a junior, Clinton won the Region 9 championship for the second consecutive year, and was named Northern Kentucky Male Golfer of the Year. He averaged 37 for 9 holes. He has started strong this season, too, having won the Catholic Cup Boys Golf Tournament. He holds many school records, including lowest 9-hole round (32) and lowest 18-hole round (67). Active in community service, his golf comes naturally--mom Barbara is the school's golf coach! His favorite athlete and most-like-to-meet is Tiger Woods.

Favorite entertainer:

Chris Rock.

Coach's Quote -- "Clint has devoted a big portion of his life to golf since beginning competing at the age of 7...he has spent countless hours practicing...others say his best quality is his stoic demeanor while playing." -- Barbara Kohls, Golf Coach
