

LaRosa's MVP of the Week

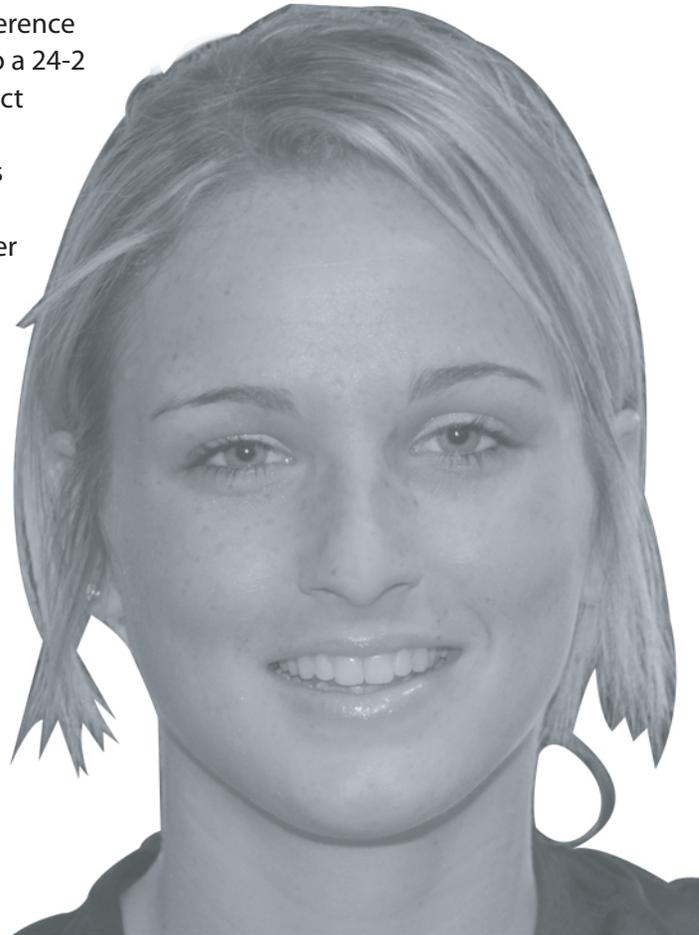

LAROSAS MVP.COM

Natalie Marsh

Walnut Hills High School

A starter since her freshman year, Natalie, the school's all-time kill leader, is attempting to help the Eagles to a 3rd consecutive FAVC conference championship. A middle hitter, last season she led her team to a 24-2 record, a sectional championship (1st in 10 years) and a district runnerup finish.

She led all Division I players in kill efficiency (.421 with 260 kills) and was named 1st team all-city, 2nd team all-state, and FAVC conference Player of the Year. She also tied for 7th in blocking average and was 9th in serving aces (37). During the summer, Natalie was named to the all-tournament team at the national Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships in Salt Lake City, playing for the Mizuno Cincinnati Classics Red. Next season, she will take her game to the University of Kentucky. Her favorite entertainer is Lacey Cormendy; her favorite athlete is Jane Thompson, and her most-like-to-meet is Brad Pitt.

Natalie Marsh Walnut Hills High School

SPORT: Volleyball

GRADUATING YR.: 2006

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT: Making all-tournament team at nationals.

BIRTHDATE: 5-6-88

HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 6' - 137 lbs.

RESIDENCE: Mt. Washington

PARENTS: Bill & Randie

BIGGEST INFLUENCE: "Aunt Sue & Mom."

FUTURE GOAL: "Be in the Olympics."

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Natalie is not only a very talented athlete, but what really separates her from the average and good players is her great work ethic. She loves the game and practices every day to improve not only herself, but also to enhance team development. She is a joy to coach and motivates me, as a coach, along with her teammates to achieve our goals." -- Tim Mersch, Volleyball Coach

October 11, 2005