Hillary Otte

St. Henry High School

One of the many stars on the #1 ranked Northern Kentucky volleyball team, Hillary helped the Crusaders last season win the district and regional championships and make it to the Kentucky Final Four. Hillary was named to the state all-tournament team and was also named MVP of the regional tournament when she had 11 kills and scored the last four points of the regional championship game.

For the season she notched 223 kills and 56 blocks. She also earned honors as Northern Kentucky Div. II Player of the year. During the summer, Hillary was a major cog for Northern Kentucky Volleyball Club's Tsunami 17-1 team that played in the Junior Olympics National Championships in Salt Lake City, finishing 5th in the nation. Hillary will play volleyball next year at Xavier University. She is a 4.0 honor student and active in community service. Her favorite entertainer is Jimmy Buffet, her favorite athlete is Michael Jordan and most-like-to-meet is Abraham Lincoln.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "On the court and in the classroom, Hillary displays the talent, skills, character, leadership and respect that make her a top-notch player and member of many all-tournament teams. She loves the game of volleyball and works extremely hard to better her game. Her energy and enthusiasm have a tremendous impact on the rest of the team." -- Maureen Kaiser, Volleyball Coach
