Heather Hausfeld

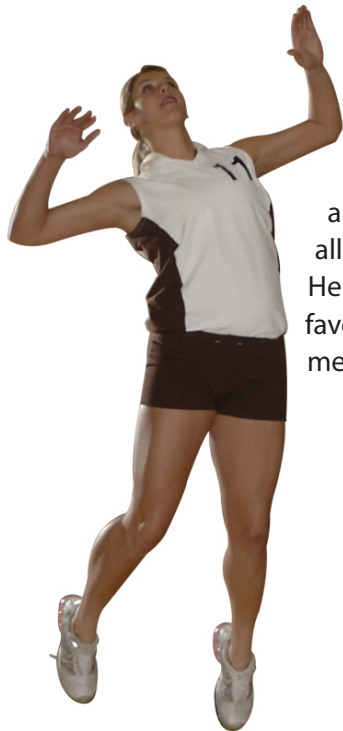

Roger Bacon High School

Heather helped lead her team to 2 consecutive Ohio state Div. II volleyball championships; the Spartans went undefeated (29-0) this season and were ranked #3 nationally. In the state championship victory, she notched 20 kills vs.

Walsh Jesuit. Heather was named 1st team all-conference, all-city, all-Southwest Ohio and all-state. Heather's summer team is the Cincinnati Team Z Volleyball Club that finished 3rd in the nation. An honor roll student, Heather is active in community service, and will play volleyball at the University of Kentucky.

Also a basketball star who decided not to play this season, Heather last year led the Spartans (23-3) to the district championship for the 2nd straight year. A 3-year varsity starter, last season she averaged a double-double (12 points-13 rebounds) and was named 1st team all-conference and all-city (Div. II) and honorable mention all-state. Her favorite entertainer is Adam Sandler; her favorite athlete is J.J. Redick and her most-like-to-meet is "my mom."

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Heather has great natural ability and size which make her an excellent player. Heather's athleticism made her one of the top rebounders and shot blockers in the city during her junior season. This combined with a solid shot inside ten feet helped the Lady Spartan's to the Regional Final game in 2005." -- John Schablein, Basketball Coach
