Ashlee Bridge

Princeton High School

Senior shooting guard was a floor leader on Cincinnati's top girls' team (23-1, regional runner-up, ranked 7th in nation). A 3-year varsity starter, last year she helped her team to an 18-4 record and the GMC championship. She averaged 16 points, 5 rebounds, 2.3 steals a game and was named Player of the Year in the Greater Miami Conference. She also earned the honors of 1st team all-conference, 1st team all-city, 2nd team all-Southwest Ohio district and honorable mention all-state. Ashlee had a strong senior season, scoring 27 vs. Mason and 21 vs. Hamilton and Northwest. She has scored nearly 900 points in her illustrious varsity career. An academic all-star, Ashlee also played 3 years of volleyball, and this past season was honorable mention all-city. Her favorite entertainer is Usher, her favorite athlete is Michael Jordan, and her most-like-to-meet is Jesus. Ashlee will play basketball next year at Vanderbilt U.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Ashlee is one of the most gifted players whom I have ever coached. She is a natural athlete who has honed her skills into one of the best players in the country."
