Jennifer McKee

Hamilton High School

In a dominating performance, this senior pitcher went 21-3 last year for the GMC champs, tossing 12 shutouts and 4 no-hitters. She recorded 310 strikeouts in 165 innings, a miniscule 0.51 ERA and opponents batted only 0.87 against her. She twice has been named 1st team all-conference, all-city, and all-Southwest Ohio, and last year was named 1st team all-state. The holder of numerous Big Blue school records, Jennifer has a career 39-9 record with 25 career shutouts and 7 no-hitters. She was selected to play for an all-star team that toured England last summer. Also an academic superstar with a 4.6 GPA and perfect attendance, Jennifer is active in community service. Her favorite entertainer is Bob Barker, her favorite athlete is Randy Johnson, and her most-like-to-meet is Frank Sinatra. She has not yet committed to a college, but will play at the next level next season.
