Brad Brookbank

St. Xavier High School

This senior is an all-star in both baseball and football. In baseball, the outfielder last year hit .394 and led the city in triples (9). He also had 31 RBIs and stole 12 bases while being named 1st team all-GCL, all-city, all-Southwest Ohio district, and honorable mention all-state. He plays for the Franklin Savings A's during the summer, and has not yet selected a college, but plans to play baseball collegiately. In football the defensive back with 61 tackles helped the 15-0 Bombers to its first-ever Ohio state football championship. He set an Ohio record during the championship game by returning a punt 71 yards for a TD. He has been invited to play in the Cincinnati East-West and the prestigious Ohio-Pennsylvania Big 33 all-star games this summer. An honor student active in community service, Brad's favorite entertainer is Vince Vaughn and his favorite athlete is Jim Edmonds.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Team success comes first with Brad. His hard work and dedication have made him a better student-athlete and also leads others to excellence." -- Bill Slinger, Baseball Coach
