Julian Wilkison

Anderson High School

Senior point guard and Cincinnati's top scorer is Julian Wilkison, a 3-year varsity starter who will finish in the top 5 in scoring in school history. A 1,000-point career scorer, big games this year include 32 points vs. both Indian Hill and McNicholas, 29 vs. Walnut Hills, 27 vs. Glen Este, and 25 vs. Winton Woods. Julian averaged 20 points last year. "Julian is one of the hardest workers at his game that I have coached," says Coach Frank Brandy. He has earned many honors, including 1st team all FAVC twice as well as 1st team all-city and honorable mention all Southwest Ohio district. He is a good student-athlete, making the honor roll each high school semester. Active in community service, Julian will play next year at Rollins College. His favorite athlete is Steve Nash, favorite entertainer is Denzel Washington and his favorite movies are He Got Game and Man on Fire.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Julian has a goal to be very good and he has put the time and effort in over the past few years to become the best player he can." -- Frank Brandy, Basketball Coach
