Kiondra McGee

Ursuline Academy

This senior soccer player scored 12 goals and had 11 assists (35 points) last year on the way to being named GGCL Scarlet Player of the Year. She was also 1st team all-conference for the second time, 1st team all-city and 3rd team all-Ohio. She plays for the Cincinnati Classics Hammer FC in the summer. Kiondra also plays basketball for the Lions and as a guard earned honorable mention all-league and all-city honors. An academic honor roll student and member of National Honor Society, Kiondra is very active in community service. She comes by her talent naturally – she is the daughter of former Cincinnati Bengal Tim McGee. Her favorite entertainer is Michael Jackson, favorite athlete is Muhammad Ali and most-like-to-meet is Oprah. Her favorite movies are "Love & Basketball" and "Remember of Titans." Kiondra will play soccer next season at the University of Kentucky.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Kiondra has explosive speed, a strong competitive drive, and is extremely aggressive. She understands the game and makes the players around her better." – Colleen Dehring, Soccer Coach
