Patrick Bandy

St. Xavier High School

This senior already has a tennis Ohio state championship under his belt – Patrick as a sophomore won the Ohio doubles tennis title with partner Jonathan Gaffney. Compiling a 30-1 record that year, Patrick was named 1st team all-city and all-state. He would once again earn these honors last year as a junior when he notched a 25-4 record in singles and was the Ohio state Div. I runner-up. A 4-year starter, Patrick's efforts helped the Bombers keep their streak alive of winning the league title every year since 1967, and helped the Bombers win the Ohio state tennis team title in both 2006 and in 2007. Active in community service and an academic all-star as well, Patrick will play next year at the University of Kentucky. His favorite athlete is Pete Sampras, favorite entertainer is Mark Wahlberg, favorite movie is Remember the Titans and his most-like-to-meet is Michael Jordan.
