

Ashleigh Witte

Lakota West

This senior 4-year varsity starter for the Firebirds is one of the region's best tennis players and won the Ohio state Div. I doubles champion last season (with then-partner Amanda Lin). As a junior, Ashleigh compiled a 19-3 record at 1st singles, and a 12-0 record in doubles.

Ashleigh has earned numerous honors, including being named four times as GMC Player of the Year, and three times by the Enquirer as 1st team all-city. She was also named 1st team all-state as a junior. Ashleigh is the school record-holder with 28 wins in a season (2007), and, even before this season's competition was the school's career leader in wins (73). An academic honor roll student (National Honor Society), Ashleigh will play tennis next year at the University of Cincinnati. Her favorite athlete is Roger Federer, favorite entertainer is Taylor Swift, favorite book is Twilight, favorite movie is National Treasure and most-like-to-meet is Rafael Nadal.

COACH'S QUOTE -- "Ashleigh is one of the most talented players I have seen. I think her biggest strength is her knowledge of the game. Even when her shots are not sharp during a particular game, she is still hard to beat because she knows how to switch things up and play to her strengths. She is a great leader for the same reason. She helps me quite a bit with coaching the other players." -- Bryan Skoog, Tennis Coach
