

Dwayne Stanford

Taft High School

A 2-sport all-star, senior Dwayne Stanford (10 ppg.-8 rpg.) in basketball helped Taft this season finish undefeated (12-0) in the CMAC for the second consecutive season. His junior year, Dwayne helped the 26-1 Senators take the school's first-ever Ohio state basketball title and was named 1st team all-city. Also a gifted football receiver, Dwayne was one of the most recruited offensive players in the state and finished his senior season with 32 catches for 905 yards and 11 TDs and was named 1st team all-conference, all-city, all-SWO district and all-Ohio. He was also selected to play in the nationally televised U.S. Army

All-American Bowl this past January in San Antonio. An honor roll student who is active in community service, Dwayne will play football next season at the University of Oregon. His favorite athlete is LeBron James, favorite entertainer is Will Smith, favorite book is Tears of a Tiger and most-like-to-meet is Kobe Bryant.
