

Carlik Jones

Aiken High School

Aiken senior Carlik Jones is one of Cincinnati's premier basketball players, a 4-year varsity starter and a member of the 1,000+ point club.

Carlik for the CMAC champs is averaging 22 points-9 rebounds this season as the Falcons finished undefeated in regular season league play. The talented guard has had numerous big double-digit scoring games this season, including vs. Dayton Pointz (30 points), Covington Catholic (29), Whitehall Yearling (29), Anderson (27), Taft (25), Christ Presbyterian Academy (25) and Woodward (24).

Carlik's senior campaign is following up an impressive junior year when he averaged 17 points-5 assists per game and was named CMAC Player of the Year, 1st team all-conference, Cincinnati Div. IV Player of the Year (Enquirer), 1st team all-city, first team all-SWO District and honorable mention all-state.

Carlik will continue his basketball career at the collegiate level next season at Radford University in Virginia. His favorite entertainer is Kevin Hart, favorite book is the Goosebumps' series and most-like-to-meet is Kyrie Irving.
