

Maddie Stuhreyer

Ursuline Academy

The three-year varsity starter has come out strong with several double-digit games, including 19 points vs. Toledo Rogers, 17 points vs. Ryle and 15 points vs. Mount Notre Dame.

Her junior year, Maddie averaged 13.1 ppg. (3rd in the league), 5.5 rebounds per game and had a league-leading 3.6 blocks per game.

She was GGCL Player of the Year and SWO District Player of the Year, 1st team all-city (Enquirer) and 1st team all-league for the 2nd time.

Her sophomore year, she averaged 9.5 points a game with 4.5 rebounds per game. Her summer club team is the Cincy Swish.

Active in community service, Maddie is also an academic star; a National Honor Society student, she has committed to Harvard. In her spare time, Maddie taught herself to play the guitar, piano and ukulele.

Her favorite athlete is LeBron James and favorite book is Slaughterhouse-Five.

Name: Maddie Stuhreyer

GRADUATING YEAR: 2017

SCHOOL Ursuline Academy

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:

Reigning District 16 Player of the Year

HEIGHT: 6'5"-166 lbs.

INFLUENCE: "Haven't met that person yet."

PARENTS: Mark & Jen

FUTURE GOAL: "Get an Engineering degree and good job after college."

"Maddie has been the face of our basketball team and our program the last three years. Her leadership on and off the court has set a high standard for future Lions. As a coach, you don't get many opportunities to coach a kid like Maddie."

-Keith Starks, Basketball Coach