

Reagan Raymer

Wyoming High School

Wyoming senior Reagan Raymer is a two-sport all-star in softball and volleyball.

In softball, Reagan is a 4-year varsity starter with more than 100 career hits. In 16 games this season, she is leading the CHL in hitting with a .667 batting average with 16 RBI and 17 stolen bases.

Reagan is coming off a junior campaign when she hit .587 (2nd in CHL) with 22 RBI, 37 hits, 10 doubles, 7 triples and 15 stolen bases. She was named 1st team CHL for the third time, 1st team all-city Div. II and 1st team all-SWO District Div. II.

In volleyball, her senior year she had 278 kills (3.56 kills per game), 216 digs, 45 aces, and 31 blocks, helping the Cowboys claim a seventh straight Cincinnati Hills League title. The team went 14-0 in the CHL and 22-3 overall. Incredibly, Reagan never lost a league volleyball match in her four-year varsity career, with the Cowboys going 56-0 in CHL play.

In volleyball this past fall, she was 1st team all-CHL, 2nd team all-city Div. II and 1st team all-SWO district

Reagan will play both softball and volleyball at North Central College in Naperville, Illinois.

Very active in community service, Reagan is a National Honor Society member and earned the Archie Griffin Sportsmanship Award.
