

Madison Parrish

Mason High School

One of Cincinnati's most prolific scorers on the hardwood this past season was Mason High School senior Madison Parrish, a four-year starter who scored more than 1,000+ points in her great career. A McDonald's All-American finalist and this season's GMC Player of the Year, Madison will be taking her game to the next level at West Virginia University.

Madison led the GMC in scoring, averaging 17.2 points a game, was second in the GMC in steals with 2.6 per game, and fourth in assists with 3.0 per game. Her biggest games this season for the GMC champions included scoring 31 points vs. Lebanon, 26 points vs. Little Miami, 26 points vs. Lakota West, and 22 points each vs. Springboro, Princeton, and Lakota West. She was named first-team all-city Div. I by the Enquirer, first-team all-SWO District and second-team all-Ohio, and was selected to play in the Ohio-Kentucky All-Star Games. In addition, she is a finalist for the Cincinnati Sports Awards' Player of the Year.

A good student who is active in community service, Madison also plays for the Legends U club team. In her leisure time, she enjoys playing video games, painting, building Legos, and listening to music. Her favorite athlete is LeBron James, favorite entertainer is Sexy Red, favorite book is The Crossover, favorite movie is The Princess and the Frog, and most-like-to-meet is A'ja Wilson.

NAME: Madison Parrish
GRADUATING YEAR: 2025
SCHOOL: Mason High School
SPORT: Basketball
HEIGHT: 6'0" - 150 lbs.
PARENTS: Steven & Heather
INFLUENCE: LeBron James
GOAL: WNBA players

"Madison Parrish is a fiercely competitive player who exemplifies teamwork, sportsmanship, and leadership. She always pushes herself and her team to succeed."

- Gideon Dudgeon, Varsity Basketball Coach

May 6, 2025

